

25 Will Teach At 9 Schools In Broadwater

TOWNSEND, Aug. 31 (Special)
—According to County Supt. of Schools Fern Canty 25 teachers have been employed to teach in the nine Broadwater county schools which will open Sept. 3.

High School Principal Roy M. Austin will head a faculty composed of Mrs. Florence E. Brown, assistant principal; Lloyd Heberle, Kenneth Kay, Keith Peterson, Edward Kastelitz and Mrs. Pauline Schneider Ragen.

The Townsend grade school staff includes W. R. Davis, principal; Mrs. Bendicka Fuhs, Josephine Peters, Mrs. Alice Mongrain, Lavilla Morris, Mrs. Lavinnia Sperry, Lela Swartz, Mrs. Genevieve Ragen, Mrs. Bertha Hanson, Mrs. Helen Anderson and Mrs. Cleo Neifert.

Radersburg school is without a teacher. Teachers in the other schools are: Ruth Bristow Christie, Johnson; Miss Doubles, Winston; Mrs. Johnson and Anna Booher, Toston; Stella Keene, Beaver Creek; Clara Houck, Lombard, and Betty Vimpany, Crow Creek.

The school lunch program will be conducted again this year, but meals will be raised from 10 to 15 cents.