

JOHNSON PEOPLE GATHER FOR EASTER PARTY

The Johnson school was the scene of a double surprise party on Friday afternoon with the teacher, Mrs. Christie surprising the school children with an Easter party, and the mothers of the children surprising the teacher with a birthday party, who's birthday was on Easter Sunday.

An Easter egg hunt was the diversion of the afternoon with George Collins getting high. The school house was beautifully decorated with Easter eggs, baskets, etc. The teacher was presented with a beautiful birthday cake and a handkerchief shower. The afternoon closed with lovely refreshments of ice cream and cake.

Those present were Mesdames Alex Sandru, George Collins, Eugene Walters and Orville Black and the honored guests, Mrs. Douglas Christie and the school children who were George, Gordon, Jimmie and Carolyn Collins, Alex Sandru jr., and Mary Ann Sandru, Arthur and Ronald Black.
